

BIBLIOGRAPHY

- Bannink, Fredrike (2006). 1001 Solution-focused Questions. New York: W. W. Norton & Company. ISBN 978-0-393-70634-5.
- Berg, Insoo Kim; Kelly, Susan (2000). Building Solutions in Child Protective Services. New York: W. W. Norton & Company. ISBN 0-393-70310-X.
- Berg, Insoo Kim (1994). Family Based Services: A Solution-Focused Approach. New York: W. W. Norton & Company. ISBN 0-393-70162-X.
- DeJong, Peter; Berg, Insoo Kim (1998). Interviewing for Solutions. California: Brooks/Cole Publishing Company. ISBN 0-534-23160-8.
- Pichot, Teri and Dolan, Yvonne M. (2003). Solution-Focused Brief Therapy: Its Effective Use in Agency Settings. New York: The Haworth Clinical Practice Press. ISBN 0-7890-1554-4.
- Saleeby, Dennis (1997). The Strengths Perspective in Social Work Practice. New York: Longman Publishers, Inc. ISBN 0-8013-1745-2
- Shulman, Lawrence (1999). The Skills of Helping Individuals, Families, Group, and Communities (Fourth Edition). Illinois: F. E. Peacock Publishers, Inc. ISBN 0-87581-414-X
- Shulman, Lawrence (1993). Interactional Supervision. Washington, D.C. NASW Press. ISBN 0-87101-220-0.
- Szabo, Peter and Meier, Daniel (2008). Coaching Plain & Simple: Solution-focused Brief Coaching Essentials. New York: W. W. Norton & Company. ISBN 978-0-393-70593-5.
- Turnell, Andrew and Edwards, Steve (1999). Signs of Safety: A Solution & Safety Oriented Approach to Child Protection Casework. New York: W. W. Norton & Co. ISBN 0-393-70300-2.

Web Resource:

Solution Focused Brief Therapy Association. www.sfbta.org

Go to "Research Page" and download SFBT treatment manual for working with individuals. Go to "Training" for downloads for assessment, child welfare casework practice, supervision, and interviewing. Website also includes links to Solution-focused research and outcome studies