

SAVE THE DATE

November 4, 2016
8 am to 4:30 pm

Multidisciplinary Team (MDT) Statewide Conference

Humphrey School of Public Affairs
University of MN

Cost: $35
(Light breakfast and lunch included)

Registration is now open!

This conference is sponsored by the Minnesota Department of Human Services, Children's Justice Act Task Force (CJA), and Center for Advanced Studies in Child Welfare \(CASCW\).

What you've been waiting for!

A new and updated statewide conference on working with multidisciplinary teams in child protection.

Keynote Speaker: Jodi Wentland, MBA, MM, BSW

Ms. Wentland is the Associate Director of Olmsted County Child and Family Services. Jodi is co-chair of the MACSSA (Minnesota Association of County Social Services Administrators) Children's Committee. Ms. Wentland has over 20 years of experience in public Human Services delivery.

Conference Goals: work with a team from your county or tribe to learn about and practice:

- forming a multidisciplinary team
- how to keep a team working
- how doing work as a team can save time
- how a team can improve practice and outcomes for complex cases

Please note that only child protection professionals can register, and a team of at least 2 additional members must be registered at the same time and accompany them to the conference. Teams might include the following: county attorneys, law enforcement, medical providers, children's mental health professionals, early child development workers, child advocacy center staff, sex trafficking service providers, etc. If you are interested in attending contact your county and/or tribal child protection staff today and encourage them to form a team to attend the one-day conference.

Center for Advanced Studies in Child Welfare

Questions? Contact: Mary Doyle, mary.doyle@state.mn.us